

Meradia is actively recruiting for experienced consultants, business analysts, technical resources and project managers with Insurance Investment Accounting experience.

Requirements:

- Lead or support Insurance Investment Accounting implementations workstream(s).
- Coordinate with business and technical resources to develop implementation plan.
- Implement and document changes to technology, business process and operating models.
- Drive results and focus on deliverables.
- Analyze complex data sets to discover and solve for anomalous results.
- Improve and drive data quality.
- Develop and foster open communication across stakeholders.

Ideal candidates will have the following:

- Experience with nuances of insurance investment accounting including cash processing, GAAP and statutory accounting, Schedule D reporting and specific features of cash and fixed income instruments.
- Knowledge of insurance industry trends, including consolidation of companies/subsidiaries, regulatory changes impacting investments and technology solutions.
- Minimum 5 years working in or managing accounting implementations. This would include data analysis, requirements, configuration, definition and testing.
- Strong experience in strategic planning, business analysis and project management.
- Ideal candidates have had a combination of operational and technology roles.
- Knowledge of a broad range of investment products from equity to fixed income, derivatives and alternatives.
- Data Migration for Fund Accounting a must.
- Working knowledge of data required for accurate Investment Performance a must.
- Excellent interpersonal, verbal and written communication skills. Business analysts need to be able to navigate complex organizational structures and communicate with both technical and operational stakeholders. Great communication and emotional intelligence are key to success in this area.
- Strong analytical mindset.
- Familiarity with user acceptance testing preferred.
- Working capabilities with Oracle PLSQL.
- MBA, CFA charter-holder, CIPM designees are preferred.
- Willingness to travel is a must.

Meradia seeks to attract and retain a team of ambitious, competitive and talented consultants committed to providing a differentiating level of service. Meradia's clients are geographically dispersed. Applicants must be willing and able to travel in North America. For more information on Meradia please go to Meradia.com. Send inquiries to jobs@meradia.com.